

WALDEN SEASONS 1977

The seasons of our lives revolve with the seasons of the world. As people melt in these seasons, they become further enriched as they strive for the seasons of tranquility.

SENIORS OF 1977

We're all bozos on this bus . . .

LINDA MELTZER

"There is no Eden or Heavenly gates
That you're gonna make it to one day.
But all the answers you seek can be found
In the dreams that you dream on the way."
- Dan Fogelburg

RON GULLEY

CHERYL GREEN

"Freedom is a personal thing,
Freedom doesn't mean that you can do what you please . . .
Freedom is your right to be yourself, make mistakes and try again . . .
Freedom is yours now . . .
An invitation to be creative . . .
To build, to dedicate your life to the service of others."
- Pam Curtis

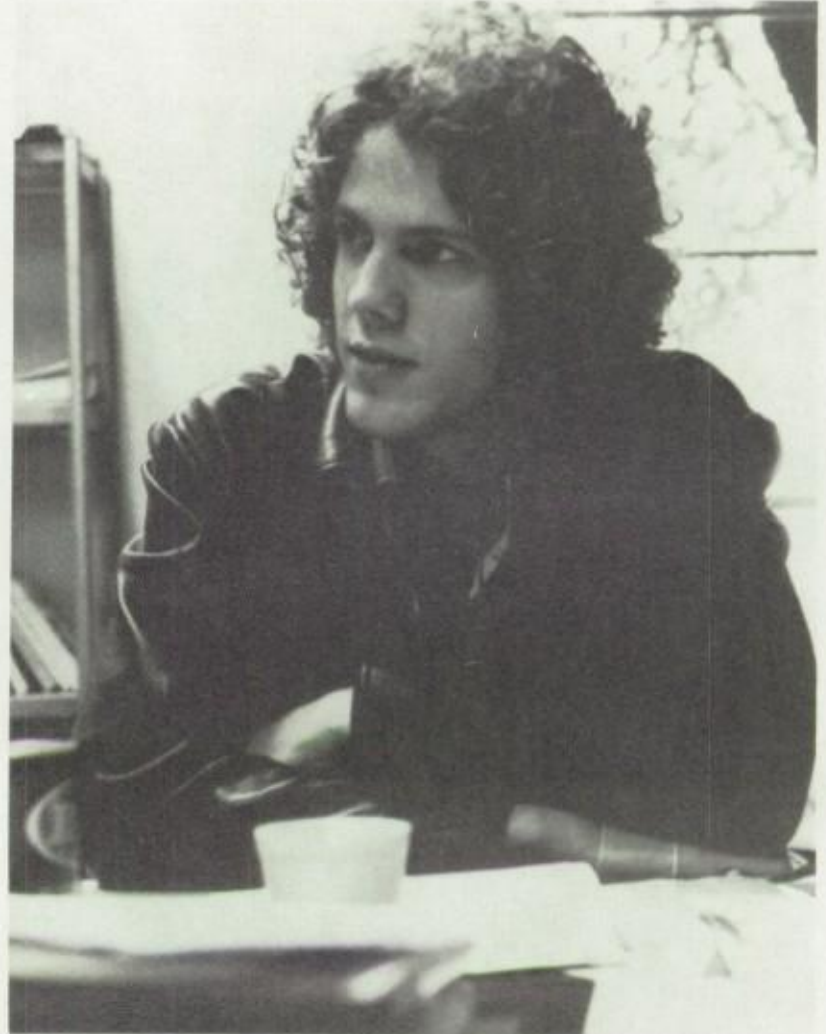

BRUCE WILSON

"Don't buy more than you can put together."

WINDELL BULLOCK

"Though the days give way to uncertainty and the fear of living for nothing strangles the will,
There's a part of me
Though sometimes hard to see
It's never far from me
Alive in eternity
That nothing can kill."

- Jackson Browne

CLIFF PRICE

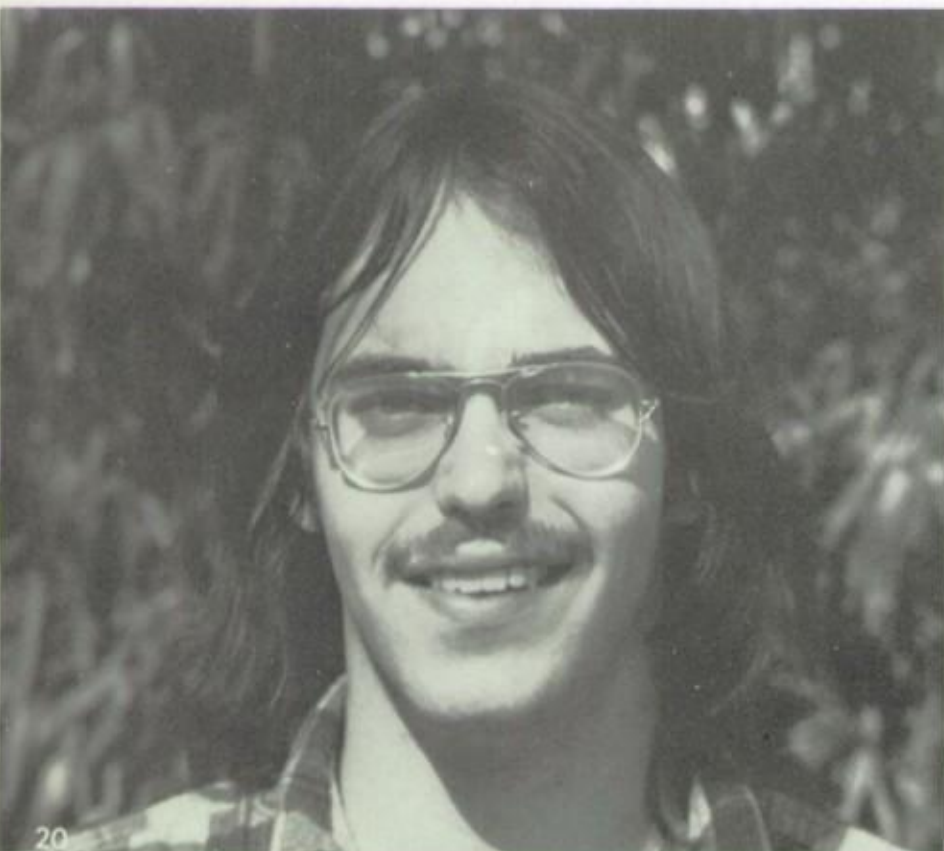

TIM MARR

CHUCK LATTIMORE

"Beware of Klingons wearing smiles."

JIM SOUTH

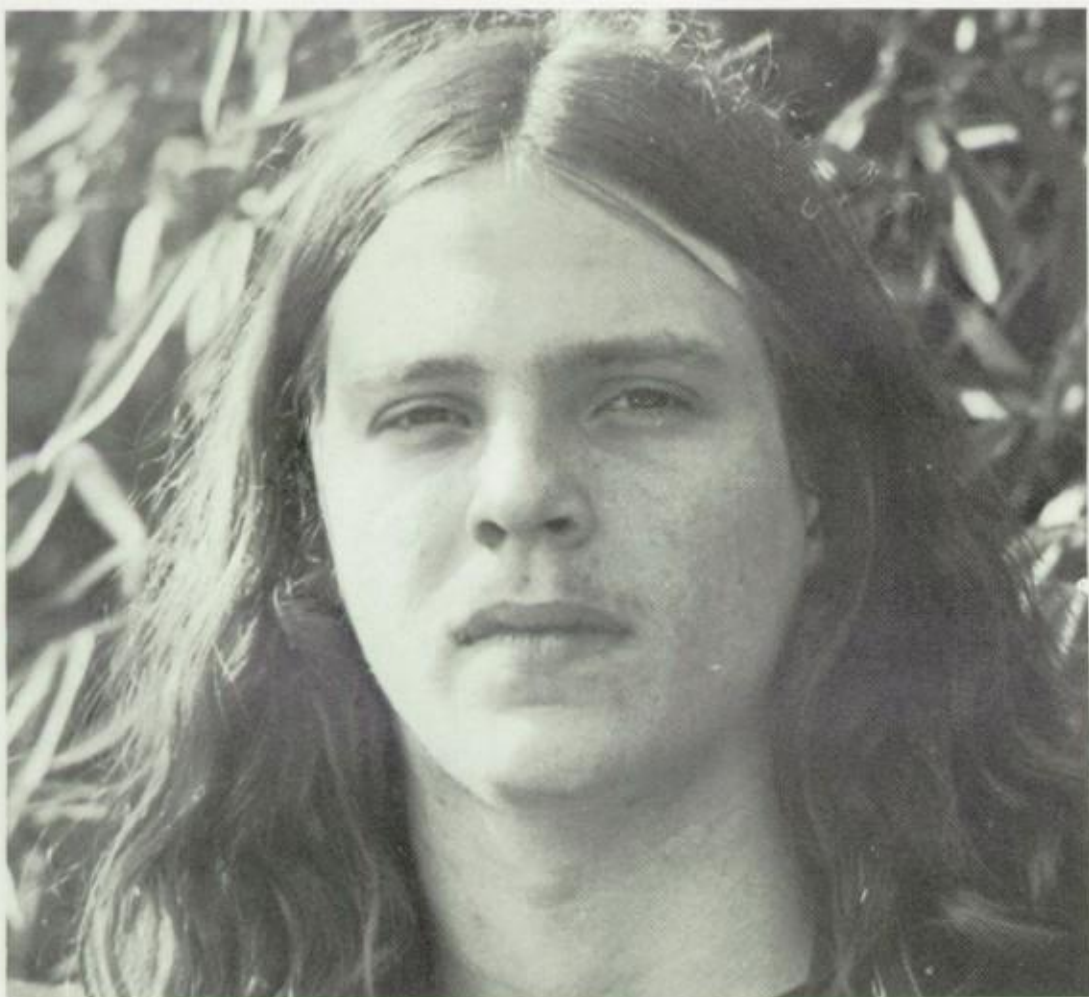

GIL CURRY

"Wise men of all races have realized that worldly gain is ephemeral, and constant desire only ties us to continual pain.

Search for the purpose in life that will liberate us from pride and selfishness."

JOE TURNER

SUSAN HICKMAN

"If you don't reach for the stars, you'll never get off the ground."

SHERRY HOLMES

JON PIERCE

CAROLINE HANKINS

"Life in the fast lane.
Sure to make you lose your mind.
Life in the fast lane.
Everything all the time."

BRETT HUGHES

"Before you can be true to yourself, you have to be true to others."

JAN MURPHY

RICHARD BOOTH

"Smile - It makes everyone wonder what you've been doing."

NANCY GANT

"The present will be the past that will remain with you forever."

JIM BLEVINS

MARIE KREBS

"I do my thing and you do your thing. I am not in this world to live up to your expectations, and you are not in this world to live up to mine. You are you, and I am I. And if by chance we find each other it's beautiful. If not, it can't be helped."

- Frederick S. Pearls

KELLY WALTERS

DAVID RILEY

"If you can't baffle them

Laughter that brings me closer to my fellow men,
Tears with which I join the broken-hearted,
Laughter that symbolizes joy over my existence."

- Kahlil Gibran

PATTY MOORE

"Love is much like a balloon, if you give too much pressure, it breaks."

JERRY KEELIN

MARY HALE

"The wonderful thing about Tigers is Tigers are a wonderful thing. Their heads are made of rubber and their tails are made of spring. Flouncy, trouncy, pouncy, bouncy, Fun, Fun-Fun. Fun-Fun. The wonderful thing about Tigers is I'm the only one!"

- Winnie-The-Pooh

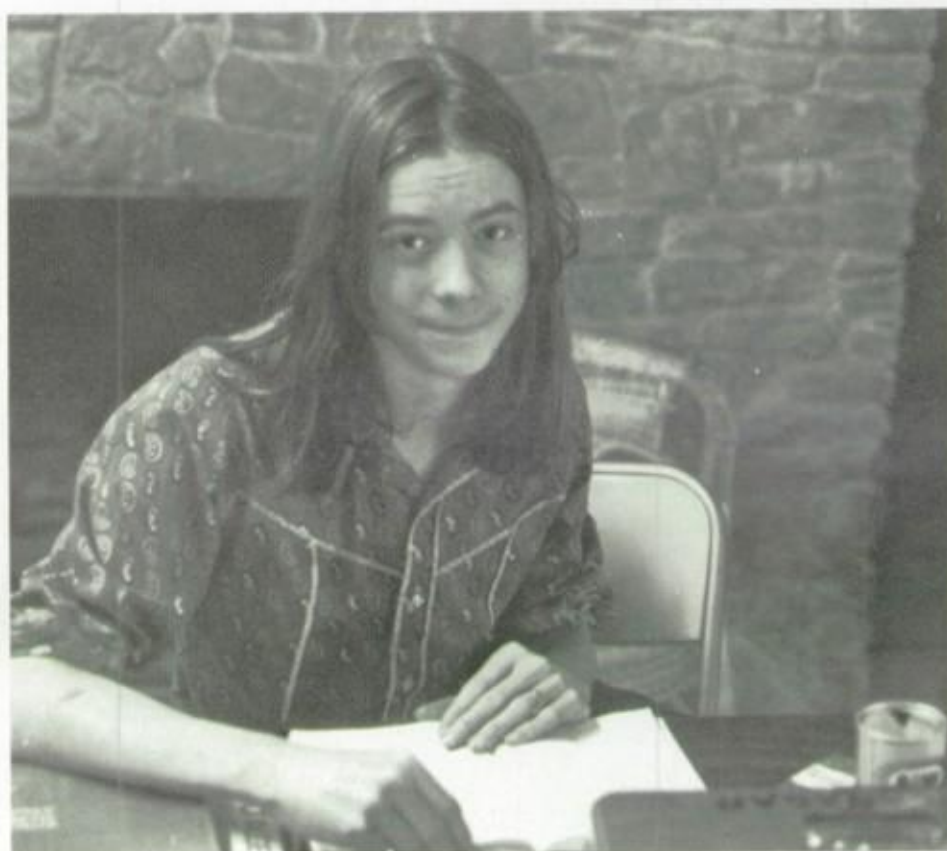

JIM GALES

CORDELL CAMERON

"Because the state is rotten, the politician

Involved and always active

E1

Seven years ago Marie designed and organized Walden Preparatory School. She was the beginning of our school and is maintaining it today. Marie holds a Master of Education degree in Counseling and Guidance from North Texas State University and is a December, 1977 candidate for a Ph.D. in Secondary Education and Psychology at North Texas State University.

"The mature person cares not only for others but for himself as well."

- Marie Loar

MARIE LOAR

Five words per minute, and that's stretching it.

SANDI McKEAN

This is Sandi's first year as Walden's Registrar. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from Biola College.

"My favorite thing about Walden is my freedom to express myself. &&dt ef $%% 2875 sk987rj 03885* . . . There, I feel much better now."

"You mean everybody's absent . . ."

SANDI AND JENNIFER SHASBERGER

JEAN FLEMING

Jean, besides being the school Guidance Counselor, teaches psychology, horticulture, and Spanish. She has a Master of Education degree in Counseling and Psychology from North Texas State University and is presently doing graduate work in Special Education at East Texas State University.

"It is this simple: If I never try anything, I never learn anything. If I never take a risk, I stay where I am . . . Letting people in is largely a matter of not expending the energy to keep them out."

- H. Prather

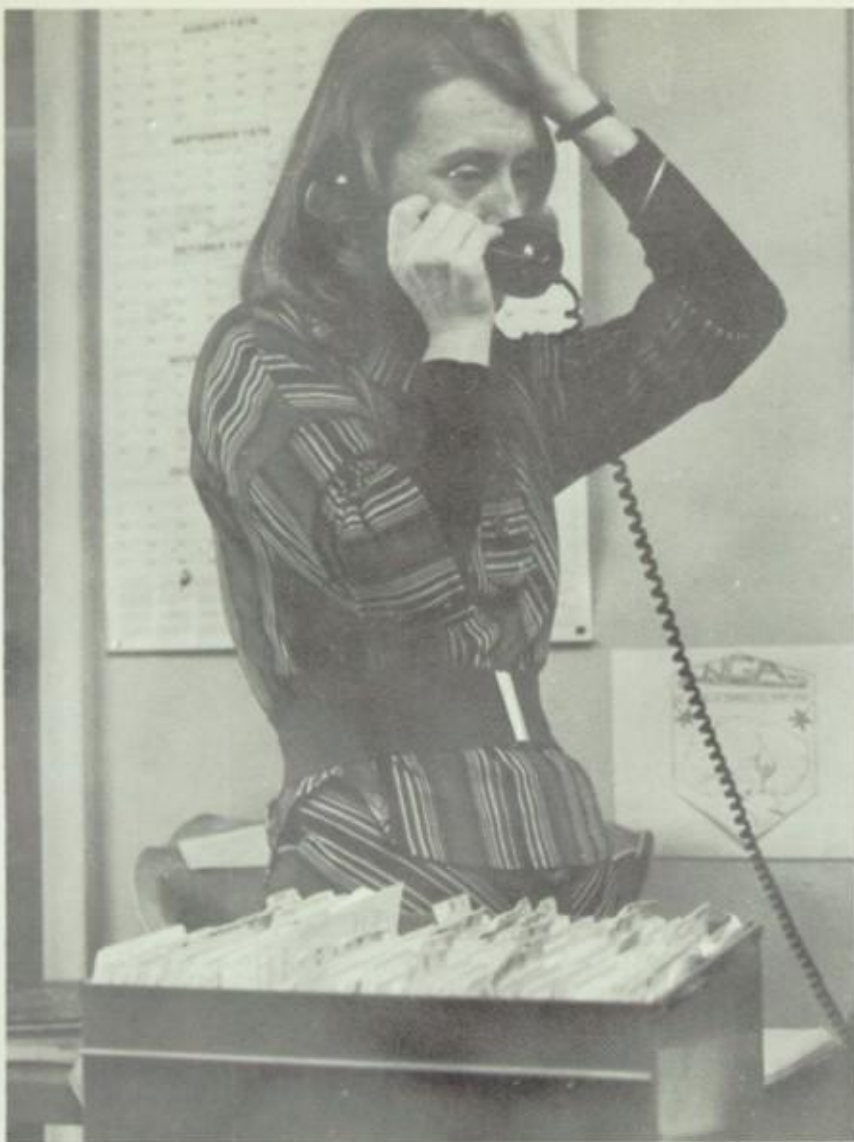

Jean and Tim work in psychology.

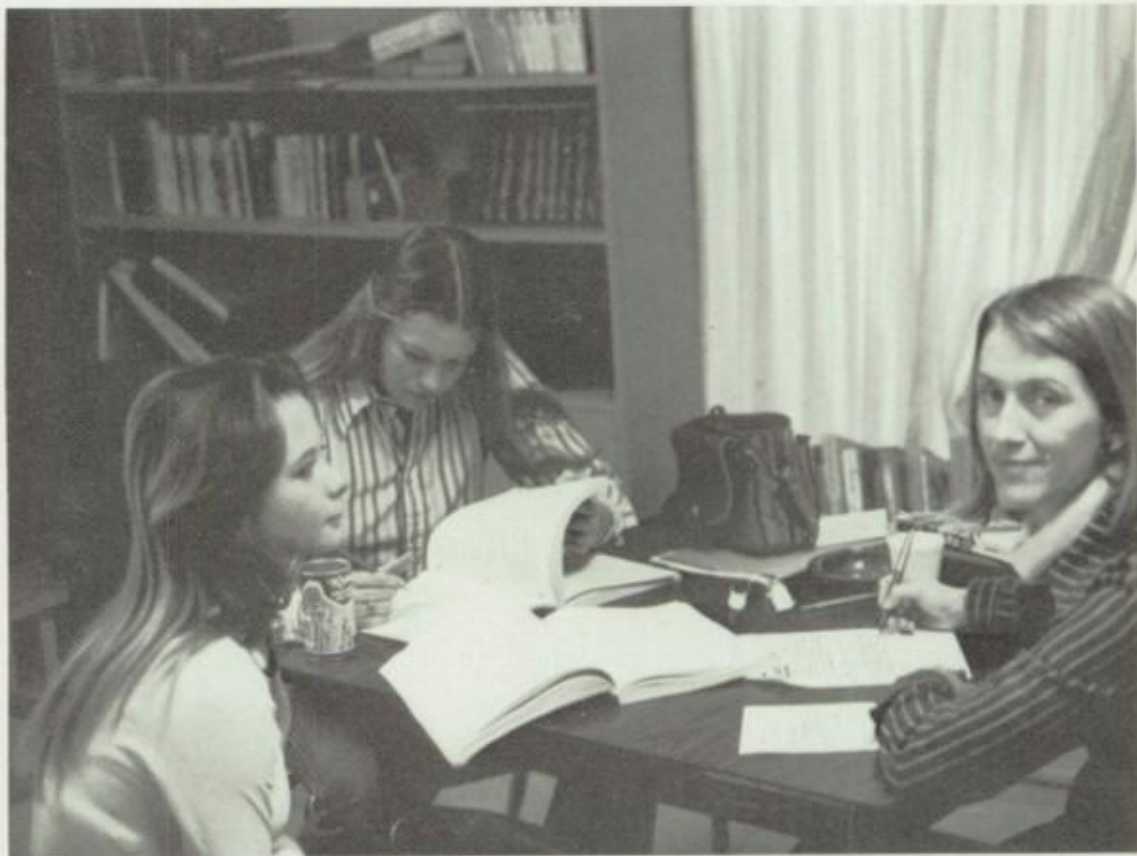

Jean designed and organized the Work Experience Program, a first at Walden this year. Students are able to earn credit by working at a part-time afternoon job.

Jean and Nancy look over her work schedule for the week.

A very common pose for Jean - talking on the phone, probably to a parent.

Spanish Class

Jean counsels Joe Turner about college entrance examinations.

Planting spring bulbs was an activity of horticulture this year.

JO LYNNE MERRILL

Jo Lynne, back at Walden after a few year's respite, is teaching English, American History, and Government. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology and Psychology from The University of Texas at Austin.

"Nothing is at last sacred but the integrity of your own mind."

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

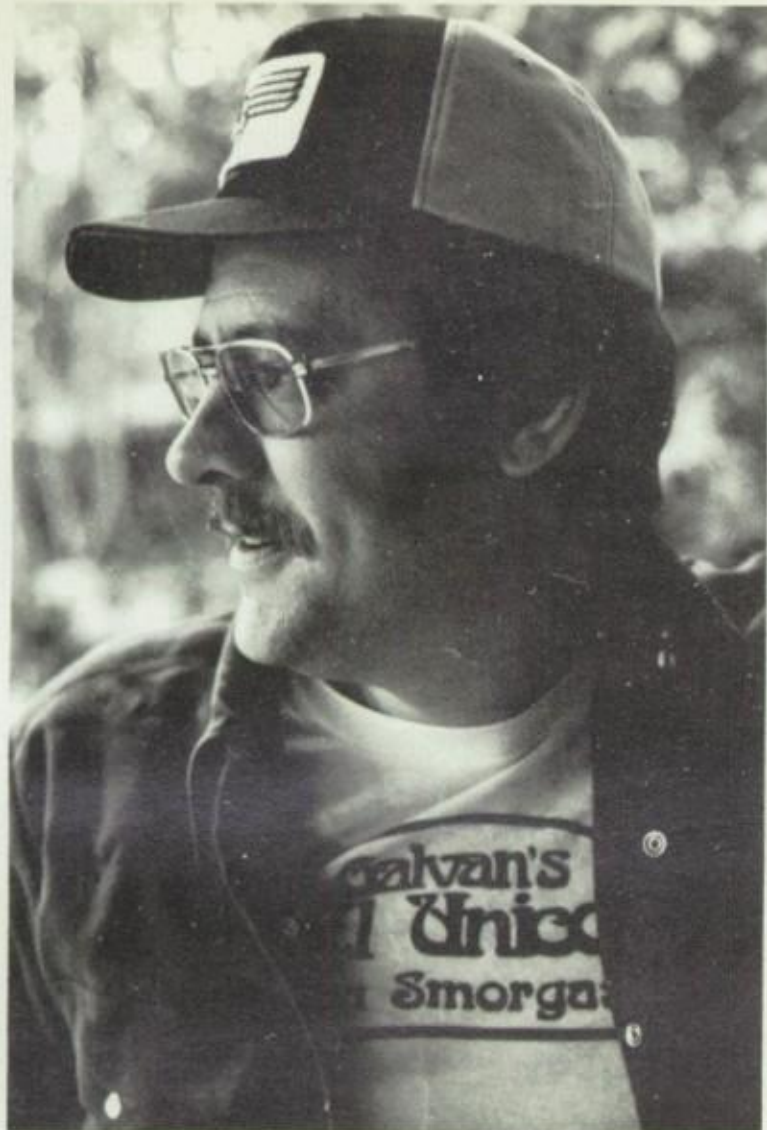

"There are fifty states, so how many senators?"

Don't throw it at her!

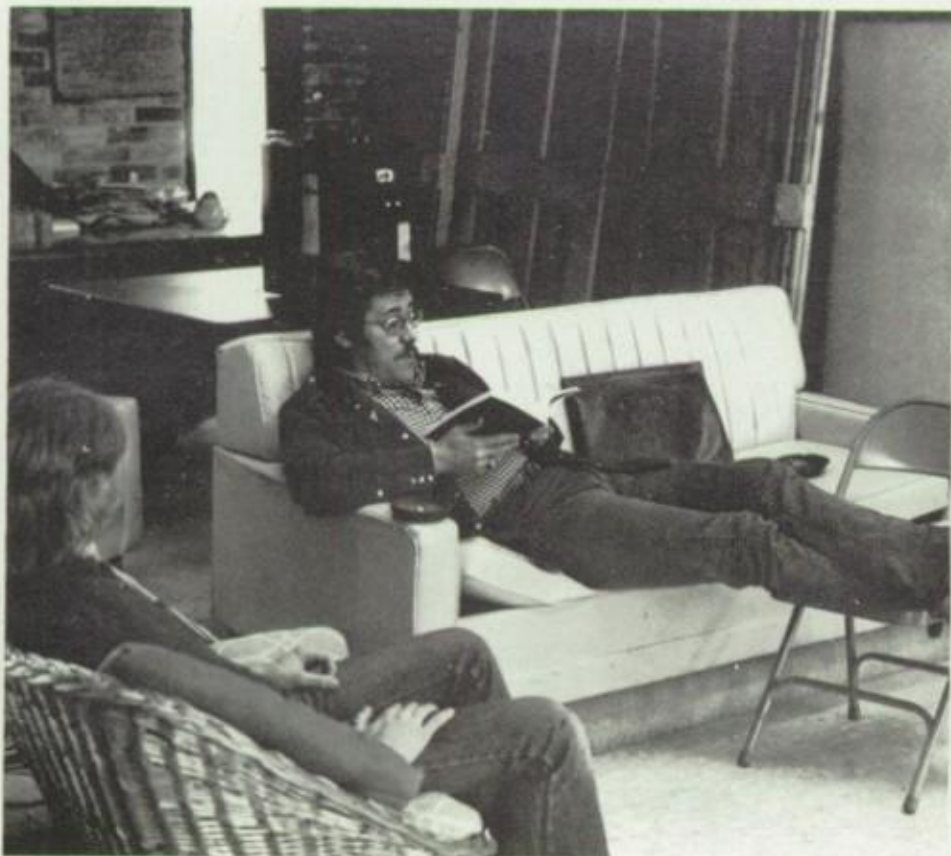

KEN THORNTON

It's like this . . .

Ken teaches drama, government, and related arts at Walden. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in Secondary Education with areas of specialization in speech and drama from Texas A & I University.

"The most disappointing thing is to find individuals who do not try to benefit themselves . . . In essence - To be open - To learn - To appreciate - To be."

Government Class

LINDA SHASBERGER

Linda, in her eighth year at Walden, teaches English, creative writing, and related arts. She holds a Bachelor of Secondary Education in Music and English from Southwest Missouri University and a Master of Arts degree in English from North Texas State University.

"Your confidence in the people, and your doubt in them, are closely related to your self-confidence and your self-doubt."

- Kahlil Gibran

"Watch your step . . ."

Let me make one suggestion . . .

How are you doing?

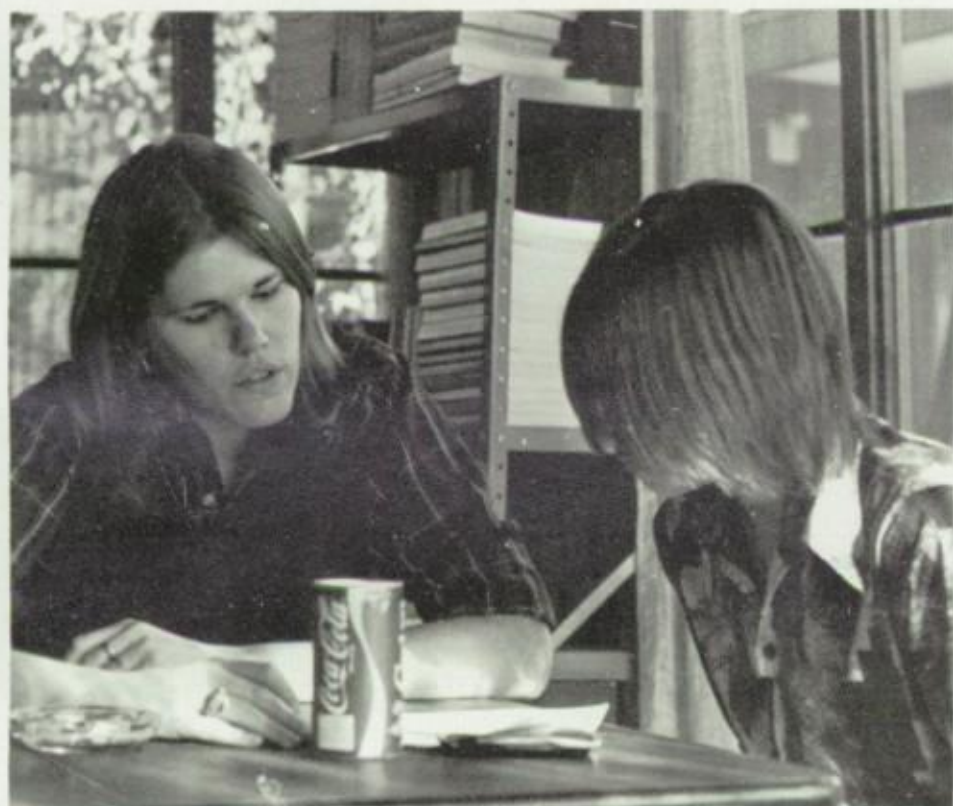

PAMALA EZELL

"Please define objectivity, Linda."

"See, you CAN write poetry."

Another new teacher at Walden this year, Pamala teaches English, sociology, creative writing, journalism, metalogues, the Religions of Man, and a feminist consciousness-raising group. She also sponsored the student publications - the yearbook WALDEN SEASONS and literary magazine THE SOUND OF ONE HAND CLAPPING.

"I thrive best on solitude . . . so do I laugh when you tell me of the danger of impoverishing myself by isolation."

- Henry David Thoreau

Pamala and her boys - first period English, M-W-F.

WALTER BERT LINEBARGER
- Do you believe that?

His second year at Walden, Wally teaches art, related arts, graphic arts, and is the faculty advisor of the student government. Wally holds a Master of Fine Arts in Art Education from Southern Methodist University.

"The greatest good we can do for others is not just to share our riches with them but to reveal theirs to themselves."

"Let me show you my magic trick, my dear."

Art Class

REINHARD ZIEGLER

Reinhard teaches basic and advanced photography, world history, Earth and Man, woodworking, graphic arts, and the Religions of Man. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in European History from Southern Methodist University. He has done post-graduate work at the University of Stuttgart, Germany.

"Sometimes the best way to clear muddy water is to just let it sit."

- Alan Watts

Photography

Herr Ziegler and Greg Kaut discover bamboo energy in Earth and Man.

Could be world history in the Dark Ages.

LARRY STONE

In his first year at Walden, Larry teaches biology, chemistry, physics, woodworking, furniture repair, and a discussion course he designed, Metalogues. He has done work in microbiology at North Texas State University.

"I'm the opposite of a humanist if a humanist is understood to be someone who loves mankind and hates people."

Larry and Jean taught furniture repair and refinishing.

Caroline in the lab

Larry and others organized a recycling program.

CRAIG CROSBY

Craig teaches mathematics, biology, chemistry, horticulture, and chess to anyone who will play him. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in chemistry from the University of Texas at Arlington and his teaching certificate from North Texas State University.

"Use your central nervous system whenever possible."

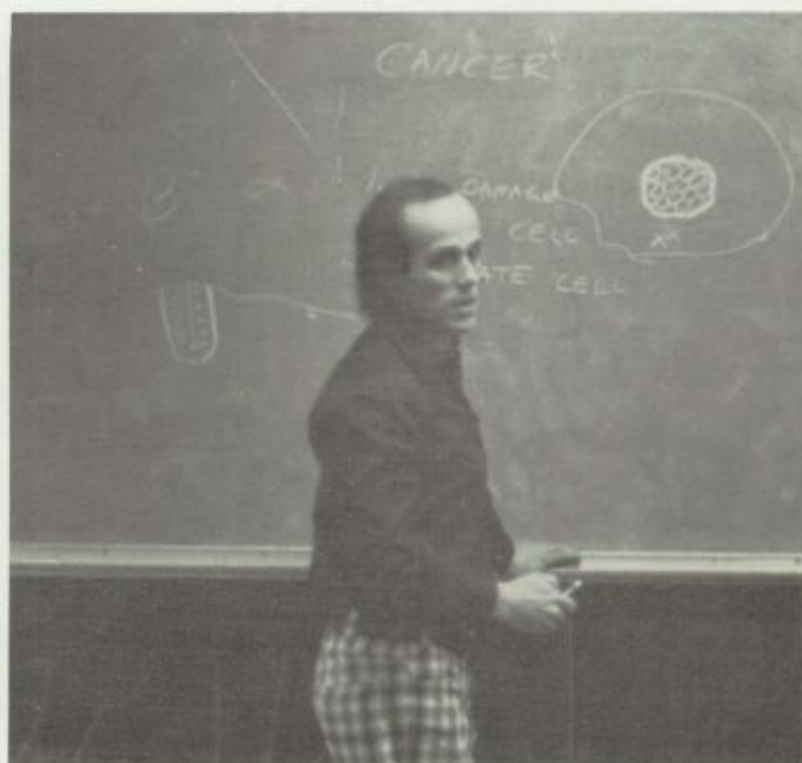

- Dr. Gross

FOCUS, QUICK!

His pride and joy!

All you guys smoking better listen!

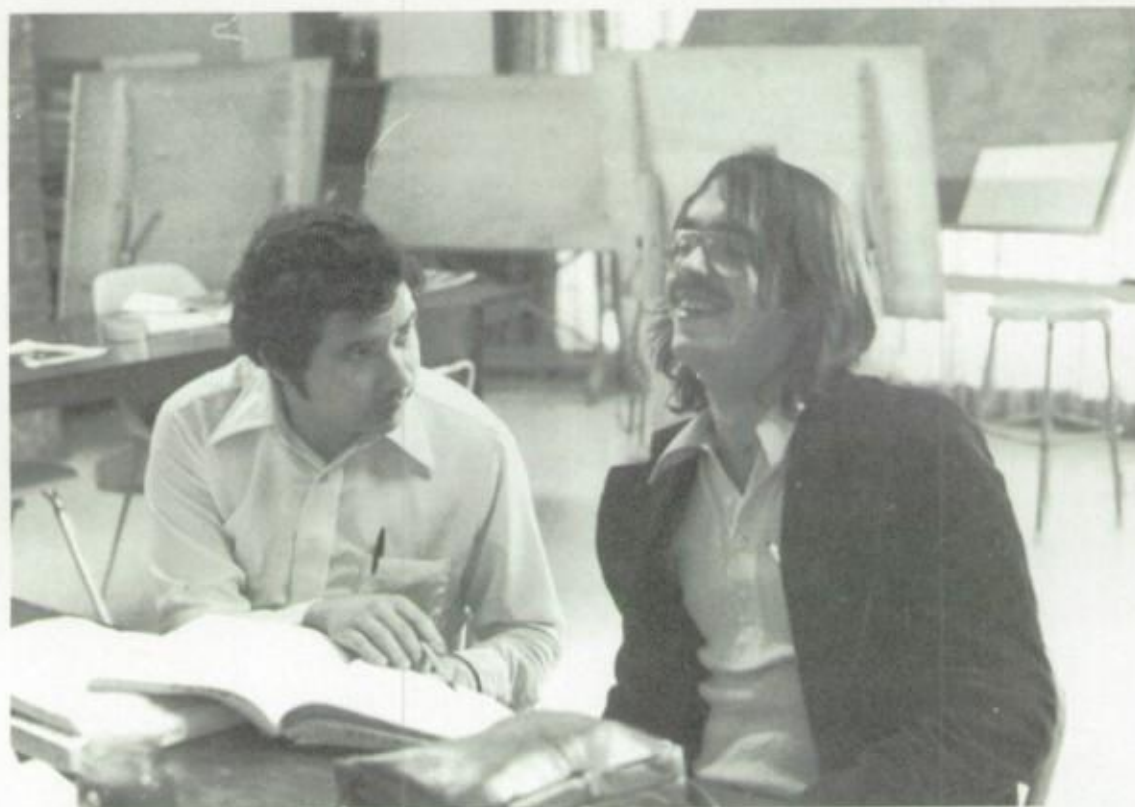

MICHAEL EISENSTEIN

Michael Eisenstein began his first year teaching mathematics at Walden this year. He has a Bachelor and a Master of Arts degree in mathematics from the University of Texas, Austin.

"Of your teacher: Say not 'This man taught me.' Say rather: 'I learned from this man'."

- Michael Eisenstein

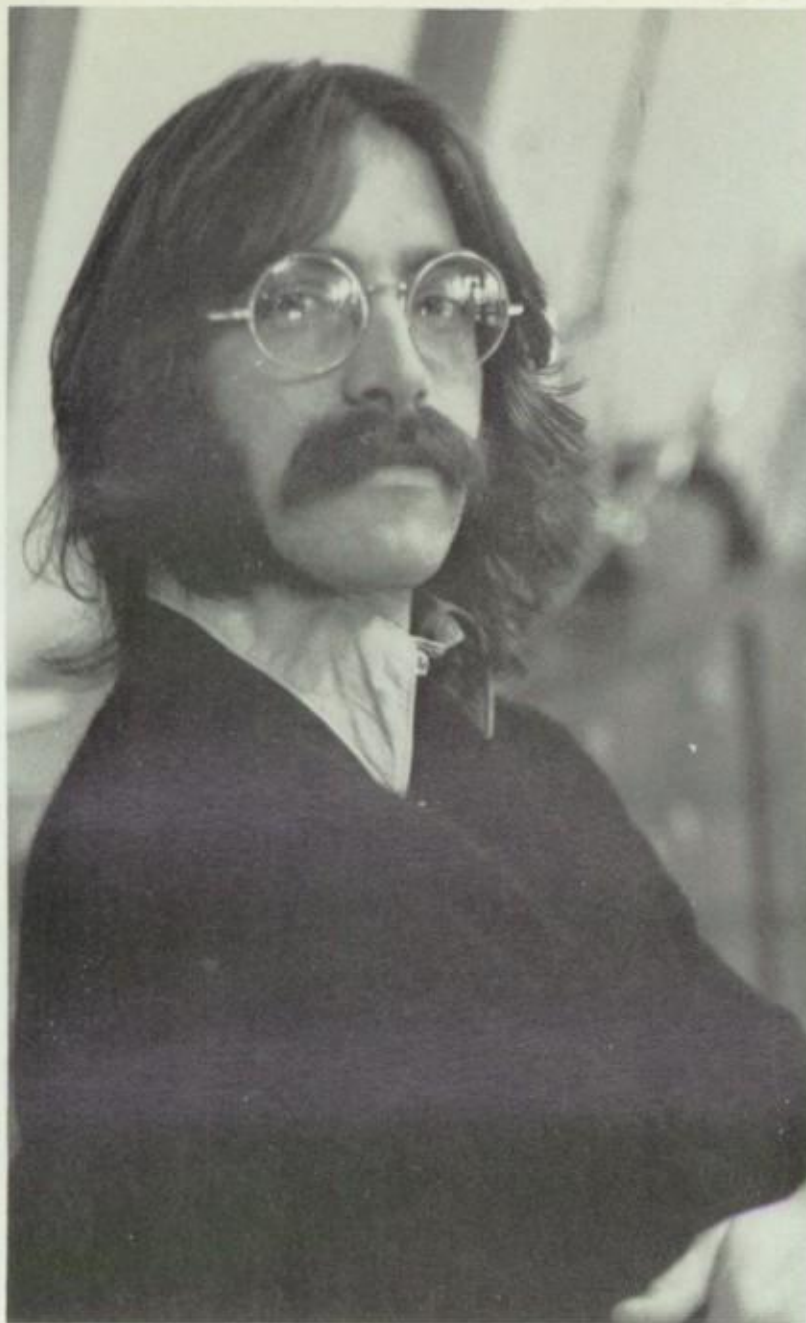

"There's nothing funny with that equation!"

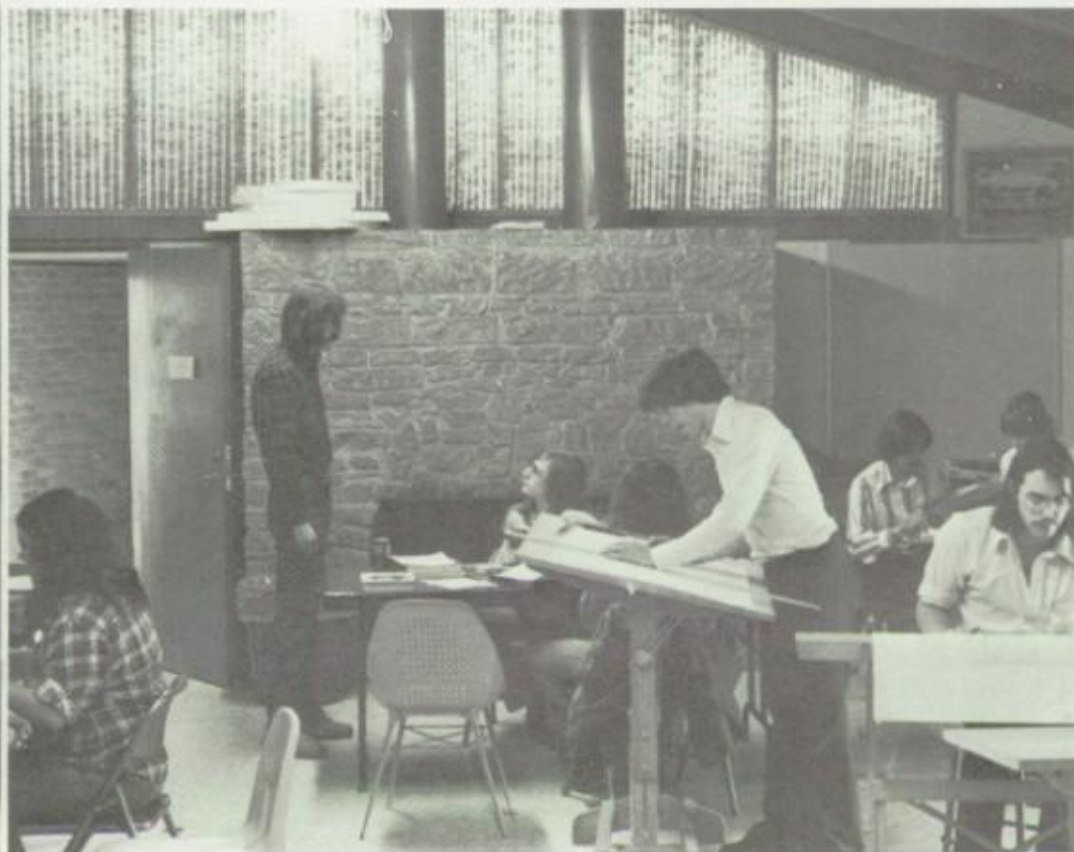

"One more time, Marie. Nine times two is . . ."

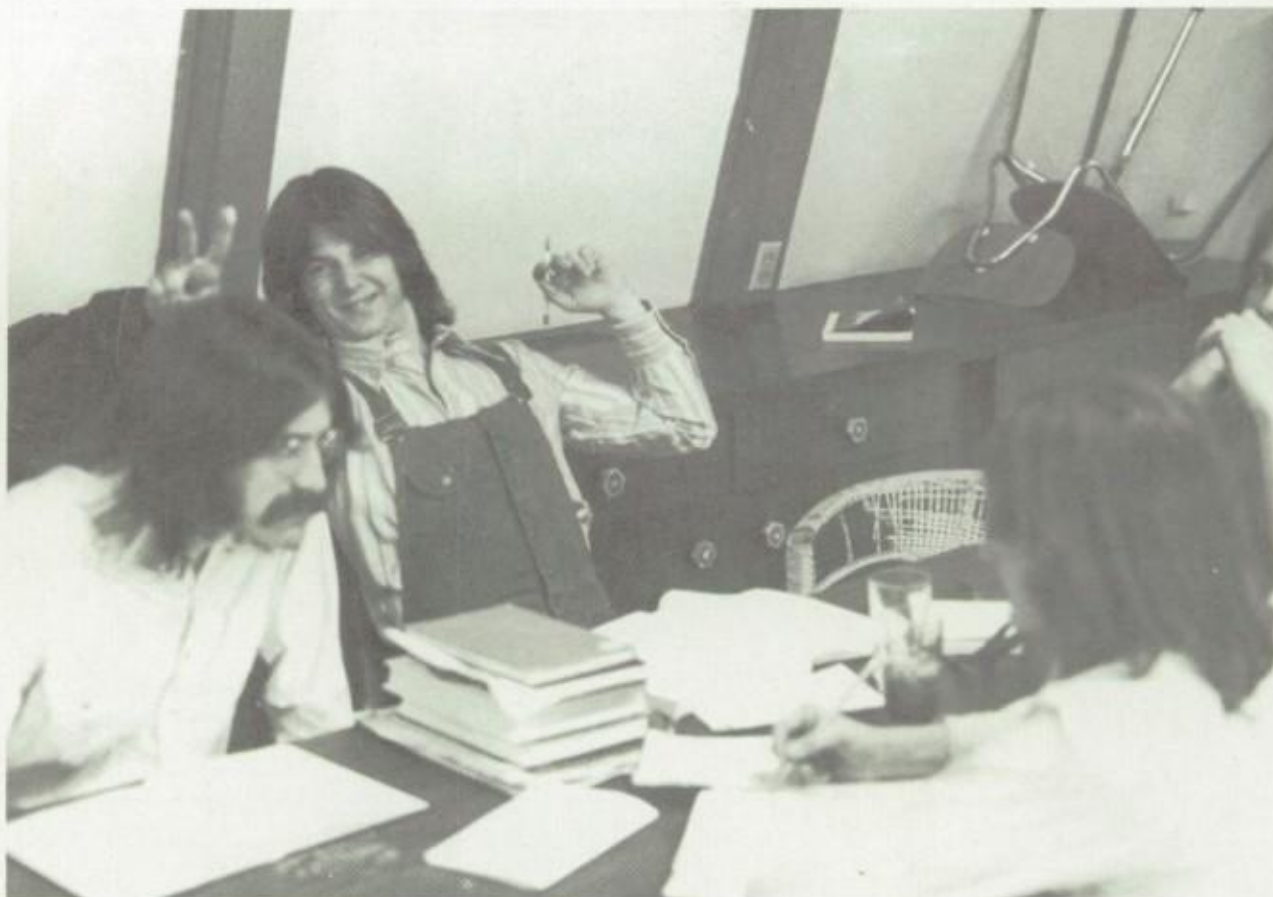

STEPHEN HOUP

Stephen Houpt began his first year at Walden this year teaching mathematics, physics, yoga, and metalogues. He has a Bachelor of Arts degree in physics from Lafayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania.

MAIN ROOM MADNESS

"In my hand I hold the sacred flowercone of the magic yellow feather tree."

Steve had excellent rapport with his students . . .

CARLTON MEREDITH

Teaching music at Walden for the first time, Carlton has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Southern Methodist University.

Music Class

LAURA MORAN

Laura teaches French. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in French from the University of Colorado and a Master of Education, Guidance and Counseling from North Texas State University.

"On ne voit bien ou' avec le coeur. L' essentiel est invisible pour les yeuz."

"It is only with the heart that one can see rightly. What is essential is invisible to the eye."

Laura and Michelle work together in French.

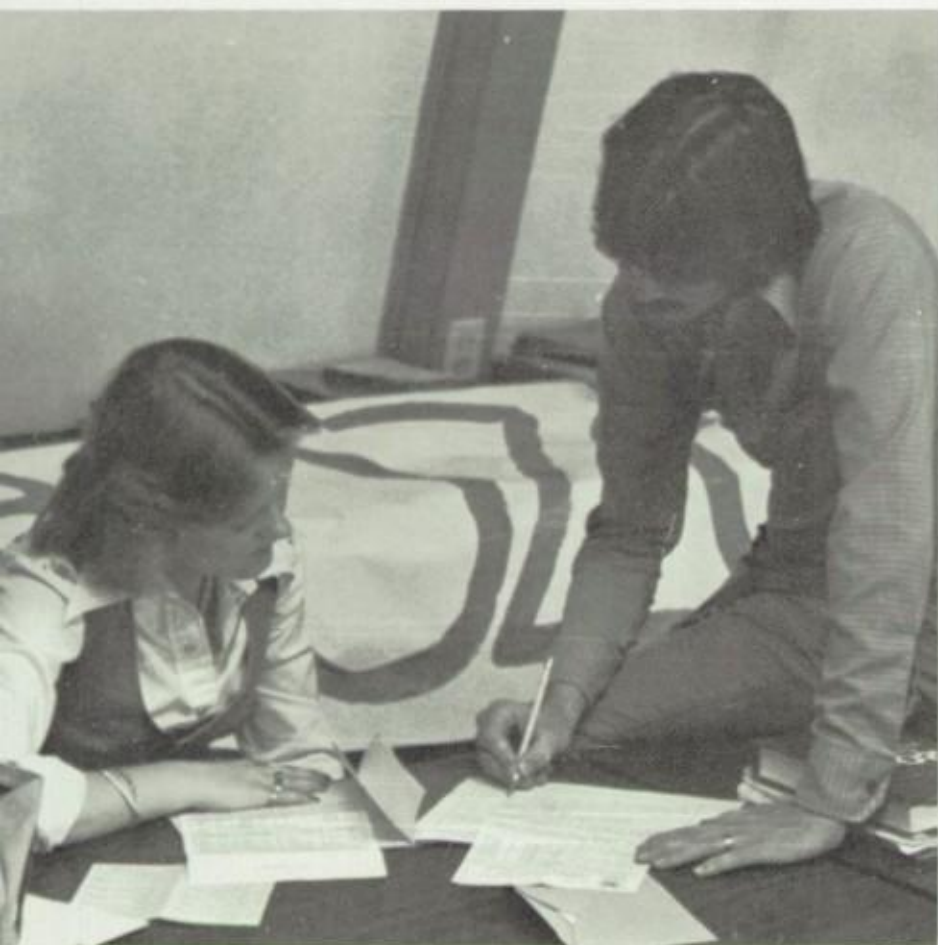

MICHAEL FLANAGAN

In addition to keeping the books for Walden, Michael teaches Drafting, Bookkeeping, business math, and Journalism. He is completing a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Arts at North Texas State University.

"A penny saved is a penny earned."
